The National Western Stock Show is Hiring for the 2016 Show

Denver, CO. – The National Western Stock Show will have over 400 seasonal positions available during the job fair tomorrow, Tuesday, December 15th, 9am – 3pm at the National Western Complex. The organization is seeking friendly and hard-working people who want to be part of this 110-year-old Colorado tradition.

Stock Show positions include building maintenance, janitorial, parking services, and guest relations. Several departments operate outdoors, regardless of weather and shifts run 8-12 hours a day for the 16 days of the Stock Show. “This is an exciting time for the Stock Show as we celebrate 110 years and a future unlike any other stock show, and we can’t do it without the fabulous team of seasonal employees,” says Joanne Herrera, Human Resources Manager and Employment Office Manager. The Stock Show job fair hours are 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday, December 15, 2015. Applicants will have a chance to interview with the various hiring departments and complete new hire paperwork if hired.

These are paid positions with hourly wages starting at $8.50 (Colorado minimum wage changes to $8.31 on January 1, 2016), depending on job and skill level. Positions are seasonal (temporary) and run the duration of the Stock Show. Valid ID and social security information is required. Applicants must be 18 years or older, eligible to work in the U.S. and able to pass a background check. NWSS is a drug and alcohol free employer.
