Junior Market Goat Championship Drive Highlights Significance of Family

Denver, CO – Fourteen states were represented at this year’s National Western Junior Market Goat Show on January 14. A total of six exhibitors moved on to the competitive championship drive competing for Grand Champion Junior Market Goat.

Judge Brandon Morgan of Newcastle, Oklahoma, spoke highly of all competitors and their goats in the show.

“It’s been an impressive goat show,” Morgan said. “We as livestock people have to appreciate the quality of each and every animal.”

Morgan went on to select the following exhibitors as his champions of show.

Grand Champion Junior Market Goat

Exhibitor: Aspen Martin of Mason, Texas

Reserve Grand Champion Junior Market Goat

Exhibitor: Braden Schovanec of Garber, Oklahoma

The 2015 National Western will continue through January 25, 2015. For additional livestock show information or 2015 livestock show results, visit www.nationalwestern.com.

About the National Western Stock Show: In the 109th year, the National Western Stock Show is a 501(c) (3) charitable organization that provides college and graduate level scholarships in agriculture and medicine for practice in rural areas. It is also our mission to serve producers and consumers throughout the world by being the premier Stock Show, Rodeo, Horse Show and center for year-round events. The 16-day show also serves as an entertainment arena, hosting one of the world's richest regular season professional rodeos, largest horse show and Colorado's largest western trade show.
