

January 7-22, 2017

For Immediate Release: December 16, 2016

Contact: Kendra McConnell

kmccconnell@nationalwestern.com

303-299-5525

National Western Stock Show Sunday Service,
Featuring Cowboy Church TV from RFD-TV with Host Susie McEntire,
To Remember Former Local Rodeo Royalty Ashley Doolittle

Denver, Colo. - The National Western Stock Show will host the 2017 National Western Sunday Service January 8, 2017 at 10 a.m. in the Events Center. The service is presented by Cowboy Church.TV from RFD-TV and will be taped for broadcast on National Television on Cowboy Church on RFD-TV.

The church service will feature music by host Susie McEntire along with Tommy Brandt and Tommy Brandt II. The Message will be brought by Tommy Brandt. Brit Ellerman will read a special tribute to Ashley Doolittle during the service. Music will begin at 9:30 a.m. followed by the service at 10 a.m.

The National Western Sunday Service will be in remembrance of Ashley Doolittle. Ashley, 18, of Loveland shared a life of love for her community and her horses. She was an important part of the National Western family and served as the 2016 Boulder County Fair and Rodeo Lady-In-Waiting for which she made several appearances at the 2016 National Western Stock Show.

For more information about the National Western Sunday Service, please contact Kendra McConnell at kmccconnell@nationalwestern.com.