The National Western Stock Show is Hiring for the 2017 Stock Show

Denver, CO. – The National Western Stock Show will host the annual job fair to hire over 400 seasonal positions for the 2017 National Western Stock Show. The job fair is Thursday, December 15th, beginning at 9am through 3pm at the National Western Complex. The organization is seeking friendly and hard-working people who want to be part of this 111-year-old Colorado tradition.

Stock Show positions include building maintenance, janitorial, parking services, and guest relations. Several departments operate outdoors, regardless of weather and shifts run 8-12 hours a day for the 16 days of the Stock Show. “This is an exciting time for the Stock Show as we celebrate 111 years and a future unlike any other stock show, and we can’t do it without the fabulous team of seasonal employees,” said Debbie Thompson, Human Resources Manager and Employment Office Manager.

These are paid positions with hourly wages starting at $10.00 and higher, depending on job and skill level. Positions are seasonal (temporary) and run the duration of the Stock Show. Valid ID and additional documentation for I-9 verification is required. Applicants must be 18 years or older, eligible to work in the U.S. and submit to a background check. NWSS is a drug and alcohol free employer.
