Rules

1. Rules and Regulations: General Rules and Regulations apply to this division as well as those rules listed below.

2. Commercial females to be judged by a panel of 3 judges.

3. Commercial females to be shown on soundness, quality, conformation, and their usefulness as replacement heifers. The intent of this show is for commercial-oriented heifers.

4. All entries must be in their assigned pens no later than the date and time specified in the Arrival and Release Schedule.

5. Heifers will be shown as sets of 5 or sets of 10 heifers with divisions broken as shown below in the class list.

6. Exhibitor is allowed one (1) alternate heifer per load and may sell with load. Females entered in this division cannot be entered in any other division of the show.

7. For each entry consignors must present a health certificate issued by a licensed veterinarian stating that the heifers are open or bred. The certificate must be issued within fourteen (14) days prior to the show and sale. Heifers will be pregnancy-checked at the sellers' expense. The seller represents heifers as they are for current and future breeding purposes. All guarantees are between the seller and buyer. All health certificates must be turned in upon arrival and must state that the animals have or have not been implanted and/or vaccinated. Four (4) copies of each are required. All heifer calves must be officially calf hood vaccinated for brucellosis (official vaccination tags must be intact), show a negative BVD-PI test, and be treated for scabies, with proof of such submitted with a health certificate. (Refer to Health Requirements in front of Livestock Premium List)

8. CONSIGNORS MUST SUBMIT DETAILED LOT INFORMATION TO THE NWSS LIVESTOCK OFFICE PRIOR TO DECEMBER 15 FOR THE SALE CATALOG PREPARATION. Form will be available online

9. Females will be judged, (removal of manure, mud, or bedding acceptable). Torching of heifers will be accepted.

10. A champion and reserve will be picked in each division. An overall champion will be selected.

11. All Commercial Females will be weighed prior to the show.

12. Commercial Females will be sold in order of placings on Sunday, January 12th Commission of eight (8%) percent of gross sales will be charged for Live Cattle Sold. Refer to the Rules and Regulations item listed as National Western Stock Show Livestock Sales. Any purchase not announced in the Auction Ring as a “No Sale” must be paid for by check by the consignor.
